"D.C.E." IS ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR

The Alumni Association M.K. Scholarship Fund, which was tripled last year as a result of a $5,000 challenge grant, has been challenged with a $10,000 grant this year. That would mean a total of $27,000 in alumni project funds awarded a total of $10,000 grant this year. That would mean a total of $27,000 in alumni project funds awarded a $5,000 challenge grant, has been challenged for the second consecutive year. As a result this year 27 Bryan students who are children of missionary parents are receiving substantial financial aid for their education.

The sons and daughters of missionaries generally have greater need for financial help for their education. Because of recently available MK Scholarship Fund, dollars of various other funds that used to go to MKs first are now going to the students who rank next in need. Therefore the alumni sponsored MK fund provides a very positive benefit to many other deserving Bryan students.

Alumni contributions toward the $17,000 goal for this year totaled $2,500 as of October 1, about the same amount received last year by the same date.

All alumni will receive an invitation to channel their student aid gift to the MK Scholarship Fund in the annual Gifts-for-the-King fund drive.

Pictures of all MKs at Bryan who are receiving alumni scholarship aid are on page three.

An accompanying chart shows their parents' names, mission agency and their field of service.
Bryan Alumni Serve as Mission Executives

Bryan alumni are finding their missionary and business experiences leading them into executive positions in several mission organizations. A number have been noted by the Alumni Office and are reported here as an expression of the Lord's use of faithful servants.

SIM International claims three alumni in its executive offices — Dr. Ian Hay '50, General Director; Larry Fehl '51, United States Director; and Fred C. Ely '74, Stewardship Director.

Dr. Hay began his missionary career as the child of missionary parents who served in Nigeria with Sudan Interior Mission. Following the completion of his college work at Bryan and earning the M.A. in missions at Columbia Bible College, Ian and his wife, June (Bell), a ’51 alumna of Bryan College, went to Africa to continue the ministry Ian's parents had initiated. After more than 14 years of service in Africa, where his leadership ability as Field Secretary for West Africa, Mr. Hay was brought to the SIM headquarters office in New Jersey to serve as Home Director for North America in 1985. He was subsequently given the positions of North America Director and Deputy General Director until 1975 when he became the General Director of the mission which had been founded in 1935.

In May 1976 Mr. Hay was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Bryan College in recognition of his faithful service in missions and also his membership on the Bryan College board of trustees since 1963. For six years he was chairman of the board.

Larry Fehl '51

Larry Fehl, who along with his wife, Shirley (Ardelean) '56, was accepted in 1962 for SIM missionary service, was the SIM headquarters office in New Jersey to serve as Home Director for North America in 1985. He was subsequently given the positions of North America Director and Deputy General Director until 1975 when he became the General Director of the mission which had been founded in 1935.

In May 1976 Mr. Hay was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Bryan College in recognition of his faithful service in missions and also his membership on the Bryan College board of trustees since 1963. For six years he was chairman of the board.

Fred Ely '71

Fred Ely, son of SIM missionaries to Ethiopia, began his work with SIM in 1977 as an accountant in the stewardship department. After Fred and his wife, Grace (Smith) '71, were accepted as official members of SIM, Fred was named Assistant to the Stewardship Director, and in September of 1981 he became the Stewardship Director. In this position he oversees and manages all aspects of SIM's deferred giving program and also manages the direct mail program to keep donors informed of current projects and needs.

Dean Franklin '58

Dean Franklin '58 is Worldteam's new Deputy General Director following an appointment made this summer. His wife, Edith, is Candidate Secretary for the mission and was also elected to the U.S. Board.

In his new position, Dean will assist Director J. Allen Thompson in special field assignments and oversee administration of international ministries.

Gerald Smith '59

Gerald Smith '59 is an Associate Director of WEF Ministries with headquarters in Langhorne, Pennsylvania. His field includes England, Ireland, Canada, and the United States, and his responsibilities involve church planting and the candidate and education departments of the mission. He travels extensively to recruit new missionaries and to represent the mission in churches and schools. He is assisted and often accompanied by his wife, Amy (Wilson), a Bryan alumna with the class of '59. Prior to joining the WEFM staff in 1988, Jerry graduated from Dallas Seminary in 1984 and served several years as a pastor in Louisiana. During the 70s he gained additional experience through his work in the St. Louis headquarters office of Bible Memory Association, the Word of Life Institute in New York, and as Dean of Students at Ozark Bible Institute, which is now known as Ozark Christian College in Ozark, Arkansas.

Dwight Zimmerman '59

Dwight Zimmerman '59 has been General Director of Cedine Bible Mission since 1959, succeeding his father, Rev. Paul Zimmerman, who founded the mission in 1946, as a school visitation/summer camp program for Black children in Tennessee.

When he entered Bryan as a transfer student, Dwight became student pastor of the Christian Fellowship Church in Grandview and also assisted at Cedine Bible Mission until 1960. As General Director of Cedine he oversaw the staff to the point of them doing over 40 persons and to the ministries which includes a three-year, self-help Bible institute, camp counseling and conferences, Bible correspondence courses, and community Bible classes in the state of Tennessee. He is also a member of the Association of North American Missions and Mr. Zimmerman serves as secretary of the general council. He has been involved in various capacities in the leadership of the Association for over fifteen years.

Everett Boyle '56

Dr. Everett Boyle, a veteran of more than twenty years of work with the Director of Operations of the staff of International Students, Inc., with offices in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Following his graduation from Bryan, Everett received the M.S. in history at the University of Tennessee and his wife, Faith, and three children went to teach at Faith Academy, a school for missionary children in Manila, Philippines. During his time from 1974 to 1976, Everett worked on a doctorate in educational administration, which was conferred in 1978. For four years, 1978 to 1980, he joined Open Doors with Brother Andrew as Director of Program and Training for the mission. In 1980 Dr. Boyle joined the staff of International Students, Inc., and has served as Director of Planning, Special Assistant to the President, and Field Director until being assigned to his present position. He is now available as a speaker with specialty expertise on China and closed areas of the world.

He is the author of several books, including "The Challenge: Victory," which is used by ISI in the training of international students.

Donald Crane '66

On the European field, Donald Crane '66 has become Associate Director for Central Europe for Greater Europe Mission. Assisted by his wife, Retrice (Pendleton) '56, Don began his ministry with GEM in 1971 in Portugal where he became Director of the Portugal Bible Institute. Don now works with GEM missionaries in France, Germany, Austria, and Eastern Europe (including Greece) to help develop strategies in general evangelism, church planting, and leadership training ministries. This involves working on the Wycliffe's schools. Now as part of the international administration of Wycliffe, the Harrisons, including their four daughters, are trusting the Lord to use them to speed the ministry of Bible translation.

Daniel Harrison X'63 is Vice President for Development and North America Area Director for Wycliffe Bible Translators with headquarters in Decatur, Illinois. Daniel and his wife, Shelby (Skinner) '61, have been members of Wycliffe since 1964. They first served as headmaster and teachers of Ukarumpa High School, a school for missionary children in Papua New Guinea. In 1979 Dan was asked to take the responsibility as superintendent of Children's Education for all of Wycliffe's schools. Now as part of the international administration of Wycliffe, the Harrisons, including their four daughters, are trusting the Lord to use them to speed the ministry of Bible translation.

Class Notes 30's 40's 50's

Tihha Macey '44 of El Paso, Texas, shares the news of the homegoing of his wife, Norma, in March this year. Mabel (Arnold) '46 and Arthur Walker continue to reside in Columbus, Ohio, where Arthur has his headquarters for directing his ministry for the Southern Baptist Convention. Mabel travels with Arthur most weekends to churches where he preaches. At her home she assists as teacher and organizer and chairman of the hospitality committee.

Roger '56 and Phyllis Bacon, who are ministering in Valleyfield, Quebec, under Evangelist Baptl Missionaries, are encouraged by responses. One couple received Christ after 36 years in the Jehovah's Witnesses; two 19-year-olds testified to their faith in Christ by baptism; one of the 19s was married in the evangelical church instead of a cathedral to a fine Christian young man. Roger is preparing a course on the Cult, recognizing it as a major facet in our Christian doctrine: Christ is God and the Bible alone is the Word of God and only source of authority.

Ernest '52 and Laos (Cartright) '54 Lee left the Solomon Islands and their work in the Pijin translation to take a furlough earlier than planned because of Laos's health. They are living in Dallas and have their youngest child, Tina, with them. Their older daughter, Karen, is a senior at Bryan.

Qualifications Listed for Alumni of the Year

Two years ago the Alumni Executive Committee revised a list of criteria for choosing Bryan's Alumni of the Year. Nominees are taken from the alumni body and voted on by the Executive Committee.

Following are the criteria and the names of all past recipients of the honor since 1986 when the Alumni Association started giving the award.

1. Nominee must be a Bryan graduate of a class not more than five years before the present year.
2. Personal commitment to Jesus Christ. Evaluated by:
   a) Involvement in the local church.
   b) On sale in testimony for Christ.
   c) Family life.
3. Faithful supporter of Bryan. Evaluated by at least one of the following:
   a) Financial support to Bryan.
   b) Field of service.
   c) Family members attending Bryan.
   d) Volunteers in the campus after graduation.
   e) Activity in the Alumni Association.
4. Professional competence or recognition. Evaluated by the following:
   a) Hold position with high degree of responsibility.
   b) Education degree.
   c) Professional certification.
   d) Specialized nature of position.
5. Outstanding achievement in one or more of the above categories named in items 3, or 4.

No person shall receive the award more than once.
Alumni Chapel speaker Steve Strauss '76 exhorted students to conquer life the way the children of Israel conquered Jericho: "by carrying out God's directions to us no matter how unusual those directions may appear to the unbelievers around us." Steve and Marcia (Krick) x78 Strauss are pictured having a chat with Stu Meissner as Mark and Cora observe from Mom and Dad's shoulders.

President Mercer receives the lion statues from the Class of '80. "These splendid lions which will ornament our administration building are a reminder to us of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, and our guiding vision of "Christ Above All."

Runners from ten cross country teams including the alumni Monkeytown Striders, move through the first lap of Bryan's cross country course creating a scene reminiscent of the film, "Chariots of Fire."

The alumni soccer team included graduates from the class of 1967 through the class of 1985.

Beth Bradshaw (L) and Betsy Phillips '76 (R) along with the head of the Craft Fair committee, Linda Clasen '69 (not pictured) help in the successful annual event that raised $600 in scholarship aid for MK students.

AT HOMECOMING

Friday Night Dinner

Were given to year reunion 5

Under the direction of Dennis Bodlien '73 the thirty-four voices of the Alumni Choir blend in "The Lion of Judah Medley."

Alumnus of the year David Egner speaks on the Homecoming theme from I Corinthians 9:24-27, "Obtaining the Prize." Egner focused on 1) The Race which is ours to run; 2) The Runner, a man or woman who is marked by strict self-discipline, who has a clear goal in mind, and who is determined to triumph over self; 3) The Prize, a crown we ultimately lay at Jesus' feet, a life of service that brings glory to God. Mr. Egner finished his talk by naming over thirty Bryan alumni who are "obtaining the prize" of a life of service to God as pastors, professors, missionaries, businessmen and women, scientists, school teachers, musicians, evangelists, doctors and lawyers.

Saturday Casual Banquet

"Alumni can help see that many more 18-year old young people can enter the unique educational experience that Bryan College has for them—where they can learn self-confidence and reliance upon their Saviour whom they can learn more about here. I know this was the case with me," Alumni President Larry Puckett testifies to 200 alumni gathered at the Saturday banquet.

Tom Branson '80 sings "Thank God for this mountain and William Jennings Bryan. Thank God his dream become reality. Bryan Hill stands for all the world to see, proudly raising its Christian Banner, Christ is all we need—Christ is above all; He is our everything."

In addition to the 30 voices of the class of '80 choir, Tom Branson and Mark Robbins brought an inspiring duet number.

Ron '64 and Diane (Peck) '64 Merren are living in Dallas, Texas, where Ron is serving at the Dallas Training Center of Wheaton College. He teaches new students preparing to go to the field. He loves his mission, his university training, and his own missionary experience having served in Pakistan since 1961. Bob '66 and Dorothy (Sides) '66 Kaats with their three daughters, Sarah, Gloria, and Gideon, are ministers in Brookfield, Georgia, assisting with church planting and building believers. Two of their daughters are attending Christian schools—Libby at Bethesda Academy, and Christy at Forest Academy, also in Georgia.

Bob and Barbara '68 report 61 students in Fortaleza Academy this year in Brazil. One of their 46 graduates, Walter Gordon, is a freshman at Bryan this year. Bob and Barbara welcomed the Baptist Church in Brazil to be praying for a Brazilian couple to help in this work. Brazil ceased to be an independent country September 7, 1960. It is significant since the country has returned to civilian government after 20 years of military rule. Pray for continued growth and activity in Brazil.

Robert '65 and Robin (Seaver) '65 Crane left Tok, Alaska, in mid-August to take their son, Ken, to North-Western College in Cle Elum, Washington, and then to New College, Richmond, Virginia, where they will make their home base during their four-month furlough. Bob has accepted the presidency of the church division of SEND International of Alaska, which includes the responsibility for all the work to be done in Alaska. Bob's father, an alumnus of Elon, will be making a beginning as a member of the Alaska Council of SEND.

Barry '63 and Nancy (Leininger) '63 Gilman live in Rich- mond, Virginia, where he has recently received his bachelor's degree. Nancy is a teenager. Barry is Virginia manager for Richelean, a dry cleaning and laundry supply company.

Miriam Goble '71 returned in September to Ecuador to renew her ministry with Shell Mera in health services and spiritual direction. Jesus and other foreign work serves under World Missionary Fellowship which also operates in the mission. Dan '73 and Linda (Howard) '73 Speicher and for their four children completed a summer trip of 8,900 miles, visiting friends and colleagues in the East and returning to Tec Nos, Alaska, in time for the fall term of full-time work at Immanuel Mission. They had 56 students signed up in advance for this year and had 12 classes despite especially difficult entry conditions for children.

Tom and Marilyn (Cranham) '78 Speicher are en- couraged by the response of their translation helpers, two of whom are married. Harry and Susan were able to serve him. Rick took them and three other translation helpers on an excursion by airplane and van to visit the translated villages of Marchina in Papua New Guinea and then to several other locations where nations are working independently or alongside missionaries. Rick has been working for a year and a half with Matthew, Mark, and Luke on the computer, making prints, and having them bound, so they can be used in the reading classes for the Angave at Angai in New Guinea.

Lyne (Stevan) '71 and Des Harper with their three children, Sarah, Rachel, and Laban, now live in Maynooth, Ireland. Maynooth is a predominantly Muslim culture. Des had opportunities to teach over twenty Pakistani men in a program of discipleship and evangelism. He was scheduled to attend an Operation Mobilization annual fall conference, but his medical interview and preparation to head East for a two-year program. The Harper's two older children, Sarah and Sheila, began school in Pakistan this fall.

David '71 and Diane (Morgan) '79 Smith moved to Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina, where David is setting up the lab and will be lab manager at a new AMI Hospital.

Alphonse (Tom) Will '77 and his family have moved from Hawkinsville, Georgia, and now live in Atlanta. Alphonse, a graduate of the school of pharmacy, is employed at the College of Pharmacy, where he is teaching. He is holding a bilingual job and has been learning under two bases. It seemed a miracle that they had only bruises and sore muscles. Alphonse's language progress enables him to correct Urdu Bible lessons. He "preached" his first sermon in Urdu in Faisalabad with the help of Tom's and Martha's children.

Airman 1st Class Stephen D. Witt '81 has graduated from the U.S. Air Force pharmacy special ization course at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas. He is pound and dispense medical agents and chemicals and earned college credits. He is scheduled to receive in Colorado Springs, Colorado.
